

A Common Thread

Though Greenpeace supporters come from many different backgrounds and many generations, there is one thing we all have in common: a commitment to a green and peaceful future. We know that by working tirelessly toward that goal today, we ensure this legacy for the earth and its inhabitants tomorrow.

Something else Greenpeace supporters share is creativity. We demonstrate this creativity in our leadership, in our campaigns and, ultimately, in our victories.

Creativity can also extend to ways to support Greenpeace. The following pages introduce and explain some of these ideas. Each provides a way to take care of your loved ones in the future while at the same time creating a legacy for the future of Greenpeace and our earth.

With your support, we can and will make a difference.
